A lot of volume in each space and many relaxation areas are the main features of this unique yacht that offers unparalleled comfort.

Boat was under supervision of professional crews since his launch through a crewed charter activity, with a very strict maintenance and many upgrades these last years ; and a major refit in 2011.

She had a RINA classification and she has been registered in the RIF (commercial french flag) since 2014.

Boat is currently ashore in a shipyard and is for sale "as is where is" at a very attractive price to allow to the new owner to do a complete refit.
